Panera Bread Associates donate over $13,000 in gifts to Children's Mercy Hospital

KANSAS CITY METRO — The Associates, Bakers and Managers of Panera Bread with locations throughout Kansas City, Wichita, Topeka, Manhattan, Lawrence and St. Joseph are proud to announce the successful delivery of over 2,500 items that included toys, art supplies and personal care items valued at over $13,000 to Children's Mercy Hospital from Operation GIFT.

Operation GIFT, Giving Incredibly Fun Toys, and was created to meet the need of Children's Mercy Hospital patients who are often patients of the hospital for months at a time. During the first two weeks of November employees of the 30 Bakery/Café's personally donated over $13,000 in new toys, art supplies and personal care items for the children at Children's Mercy Hospital.

This donation is one of many contributions Panera Bread makes each day to build their relationships with those living and working in their communities. Operation Doughnation is a nightly donation of bakery items to those in need within our community keep Panera Bread connected with those that we serve each day.
